The unsettled condition of business along the Chilean ports is held accountable for the delay in the despatch of at least three sailing vessels from Alameda to the Hawaiian Islands. Several well-known schooners have been chartered to load fertilizer for Honolulu.

Following the discharge of 4000 tons of general cargo brought from the mainland the Matson liner Matsonia is expected to steam for Honolulu tomorrow evening. The vessel will remain at the big island until Saturday, returning to Honolulu on Sunday morning.

A late charter by the United States navy department to bring a shipment of lumber from the north Pacific to Pearl Harbor, the schooner S. Christensen is expected to reach its destination the latter part of this month.

Now due at Pearl Harbor with lumber and building material for the United States navy the schooner A. F. Coates has been assigned a berth at Pearl Harbor. The vessel left Gray's Harbor three weeks ago.

MAUI NEWS

[Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence]
WAILUKU, Maui, Nov. 9.—At the Makawao Union church yesterday the new plans for the development of the Sunday school of the church were inaugurated. A fully graded series of lessons has been adopted, so that every person in the school, young or old, will have a place in the Sunday school which suits him. A large number of teachers have volunteered their services, so the school is now one of the best equipped for teachers in the territory. It is understood that special arrangements will soon be made to bring people from Lower Paia by auto truck to the Sunday school and church services, while special automobile arrangements are also to be made for some other districts where heretofore it has been hard for the people to arrange to attend because of lack of conveyances. The new community house, which has special facilities for Sunday school work was used for the first time Sunday morning for class work, and every one was pleased with the ample quarters that are now at the disposal of all the classes.

A special musical service at the Wailuku Union Church was well attended last evening. The choir rendered for the first anthem "Christ, the Morn Breaks Gently O'er Thee," by Shelley. Mrs. Jones' solo was "Come Unto Me," one of Landon's recitations, which she sang beautifully. The minister of the church, Rev. Rowland H. Dodge, spoke upon "Life's Judgment Seat," saying the judgments passed upon our lives were

HOME INDUSTRY

CIGAR COMPANY

MAKES ITS DEBUT

The Home Industry Cigar Company, Ltd., a new concern in this city, reports itself in readiness to make its formal debut to the Honolulu public.

For some weeks past Manager Jacobson and associates have been busily engaged in transforming their location, 82 South King street, from a music store to a first-class and up-to-date cigar factory. The quarters formerly were occupied by the Honolulu Music Company.

Some difficulty was experienced in commanding a sufficient number of cigar makers and many of those now employed were brought either from the Philippines or the states.

The cigars to be turned out by this company will represent a high standard, being blends of various prescriptions. The Hawaii Kona tobacco will play a prominent part in this new factory. Although not formally opened until now, it is reported that for several weeks considerable progress has been made in establishing this concern in a wholesale way throughout the islands.

Upon being asked as to the success of Kona tobacco, Mr. Jacobson replied that they had successfully cured a sufficient quantity to warrant its entire satisfaction as a suitable cigar tobacco, and, as he says: "All I want is for the people to try a few, that's all."

those for our fellow, ourselves and our God. Immediately after the sermon the choir sang very sweetly "Thy Love Thy Love Hath Spared Us." The hymns and responses, together with a fine organ recital before the services by Miss Hoffman, made the vesper service one of great attractiveness to a large number of worshippers.

The ladies of Kahului have arranged, through the kindness of Mr. Vaconcelles, the proprietor of the Kahului Lyceum, a special feature evening on moving pictures for Wednesday. These will be followed by a dance. The entire benefit will go toward the sum needed for the Kahului kindergarten this year. The kindergarten numbers about forty little people, which is a big increase over last year. The school needs more equipment and the ladies have arranged the dance for this purpose.

The last Saturday of the month is taken for a reception and dance to be given at the Alexander house gymnasium in Wailuku for the benefit of the Boy Scout movement on Maui. The affair is at the suggestion of Father Francis of Paia, head scout master of the Maui Boy Scout movement.

A mother may not train her child as her neighbors think she should, but she never seeks their advice.

The female of the species are wearing smaller hats this season but the bills are just as large.
